Riomaggiore is considered to be the most romantic of the Cinque Terre villages, ideal for young travelers or couples looking for a base which is great to hang around in during the day and also has some nightlife. Near the picturesque harbor you will find Bed & Breakfasts with sea views perfect for couples on a romantic getaway.

The village is basically a cascade of multi-colored houses in the typical Ligurian style, all tightly clustered around a tiny natural harbor carved out in between the rocks. This is, in our opinion, the best sunset spot in Cinque Terre.

There is a pebble beach behind the rocks, not far from the boat docking point. In the harbor there are companies offering boat and kayak rentals, as well as boat tours.
